

Around The Town

Margaret Long is very ill at the home of her parents.

Harry Knight is now driving a new flivver around town.

Bud Waters spent a few days in Phoenix this week, on business.

E. H. Warren brought back a fine 4 point buck the first of the week.

Richard Place stopped in Kingman for a few hours last Wednesday.

Tom Murphy, banker of Needles, made two trips to Kingman this past week.

T. H. Bell returned to Kingman Sunday after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy of Flagstaff were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Metcalfe Sunday.

Mrs. Agnes Ternouth is in Kingman to spend a few days visiting old friends.

Charlie Dutton has purchased the Ed Gillispie property in the Metcalfe Addition.

Joe Senz of the Arizona Stores purchased the Murray Chappel residence in the Metcalfe Addition.

Mrs. H. C. Newell is steadily regaining her health and will soon be able to return to her home.

Beecher & Robinson sold a Light Six Studebaker to L. J. Bremner of the Sprague Construction Camp.

Letters from Donald Thompson states that he is progressing rapidly in the Los Angeles Business College.

Mrs. Anson H. Smith, who has been visiting with relatives in Holbrook, the past ten days, returned home Wednesday evening.

George Fleming, who is traveling for Greebaum, Weil and Michels of San Francisco, called on the trade in Kingman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Goodrich have returned from a trip to Chicago where they were called by the illness of Mr. Goodrich's mother.

Marty Krug, the man replaced at third by Grantham in the Cubs' lineup, has been released to Los Angeles, an Associated Press report says.

George Bowman of Flagstaff and Phoenix, and formerly in the employ of the Kellogg Corn Flake Co., is now with the L. J. Olson clothing store.

The Boy Scouts of Kingman had a special gathering with some 20 members present and a few visitors. Dr. White gave an interesting talk on first aid for the benefit of the boys. O. W. Gildow put the boys through a stiff physical drill to which the scouts responded with surprising skill. Next Thursday high tests will be given and a cordial invitation is given to all visitors.

J. A. Tarr received a new shipment of Ford cars Wednesday. The shipment consisted of 2 Sedans, 1 Coupe, 1 Roadster and 3 Touring. The two Sedans were sold, one to Miss Gilmore and one to Carl Smith, the Coupe was consigned to Peach Springs, the Roadster to Mission Garage at Oatman and a Touring to Ted Myers.

The Sunday School of the Methodist Episcopal Church will give a picnic Saturday. The children and grown folks are asked to be at the church at 11 o'clock. From the church they will go to the valley where the golf links are situated, and there spend the day playing games and eating lunch.

Mrs. A. L. Runyan and daughter, Winona, accompanied Mr. Runyan this trip on his return to Kingman. Their home is in Omaha, but they expect to remain in the west indefinitely.

The ladies of St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, are making plans to bring "Venice" to Kingman, in the following manner—a booth will be erected on a prominent street corner and hot sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee will be served to the hungry crowds on election night, November 7th, from 5:30 p. m. to midnight.

Mrs. Johnny Withers, of Los Angeles, is in Kingman visiting with friends and relatives. Mrs. Withers is a native daughter of Mohave county and lived here during her teens. She is a graduate of the Northern Arizona Normal school and taught in the schools of the state. In this county she has a host of friends who will welcome her among them.

W. J. Beaton, representative of the Standard Oil Co., in Kingman, has been transferred to Wilcox, Arizona. Mr. Beaton and family left for Wilcox Monday and will be greatly missed by their many friends in Kingman.

Judge George A. Shea came in this noon from Prescott and will remain here for a few days. The Judge is heavily interested in the Oatman district and will make a trip over there tomorrow to look over the situation.

H. J. McClung, president of the Arizona Central Bank, was in Kingman yesterday on business. Mr. McClung states that business generally is returning to its normal state throughout Arizona and that confidence is gradually being restored.

Ada Robinson is now clerking at the Kingman Drug Company's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stump are back from their wedding trip and are for the present making their home with the bride's mother, Mrs. J. N. Cohour. Mrs. Stump is continuing her work at the switchboard of the A. C. & N. Telephone Company, while her husband is back at his work as timekeeper and bookkeeper at one of the railroad construction camps.

Last Saturday Walter R. Bracken and wife, Nick E. Williams and wife, W. E. Ferran and wife, Florence Doherty, W. H. Capper and wife, W. M. Schuyler and wife, all of Las Vegas, passed through Kingman on their way home from a tour of northern Arizona that extended to the Grand Canyon and other picturesque beauty spots. They were delighted with the trip and especially with the good roads over which they traveled. The ladies and gentlemen of the party were also much taken with Kingman, the fine business houses, the courthouse and county hospital and the situation of the town. The trip was made from Vegas by way of Needles to the Canyon and the return trip was by way of the Searchlight ferry.

Brad St. Charles is now typist and clerk for the Western Pipe and Steel Company of Los Angeles. Walter Jones is record clerk at the Alexandria. Brad says in a letter to the Miner: "You can't imagine how we Arizonans look forward to the Miner, with all the home news in it, and to say we appreciate it, is putting it mildly. Hope to return for Christmas, but doubt if I can get relieved."

Mrs. W. H. Robinette returned home Monday afternoon from Williams where she was in attendance as a local delegate to the convention of the District Federation of Woman's Clubs, which convened at Williams last week. Following the convention Mrs. Robinette was the house guest of Mrs. A. D. Griffith, of Williams, for several days.

Epifanio Levias was in Kingman with his witnesses yesterday and proved up on his ranch, which is situated near the mouth of Burro Creek. The witnesses were Telly Bland and William A. Neale. Mr. Levias has been farming the place the past nine years and has one of the most prosperous farms in the Big Sandy section. He is also heavily interested in stock raising.

Mrs. Minnie J. Hardy departed yesterday to the Cienega ranch, where she will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rudy during the next few weeks. Mrs. Hardy is a poet of recognized ability and many of her sun-gems have found their way into the newspapers and magazines of the country.

Thad M. Boggs, who just returned from a trip into the Parker country, reports that while getting breakfast at Needles yesterday morning his big traveling bag was stolen from Santa Fe passenger train No. 22. The grip contained much clothing and many valuable papers and documents. The loss is considerable and every effort is being made by the officers to recover it.

Floyd Chamberlain passed through here today on his way back to the coast from a trip through Arizona. Mr. Chamberlain is now with Kingsbaker Brothers of Los Angeles and will make about four trips a year into Arizona territory. Mrs. Chamberlain and the children are all well.

RETURNS FROM TRIP TO MIDDLE WEST

J. H. Rosenberg returned to Kingman this week after an absence of three months. Mr. Rosenberg has been in the middle west, whence he was called by the death of his brother, James Rosenberg. Two other brothers are now managing the woolen mills at Milwaukee, Joe still retaining his interest in the mills.

PRaises WORK OF FORMER MOHAVE COUNTY WOMAN

In a recent article in the Riverside Press Celia B. Cravens is mentioned. The article says:

"There is one little woman over in the office of Secretary W. W. Van Pelt who has done as much, perhaps, as any other person connected with the Southern California fair in contributing to its success this year."

This little woman is Mrs. Cecilia Cravens, assistant to Secretary Van Pelt. She knows every small detail as well as the important matters pertaining to the fair. She knows all the heads of departments and knows about 90 per cent of the exhibitors.

"Ask Mrs. Cravens, she'll tell you." This has been heard for the past week in the secretary's office and Mrs. Cravens has never failed to give out any information desired. Not many women in Riverside are fitted to do the "job" this little woman is doing and all take off their hats to her.

BEAUTY CONTEST CLOSES TO-NIGHT AT 8 O'CLOCK

The beauty contest closes to-night at 8 o'clock. This contest is being conducted for the State Fair Association and the Miner has donated the use of its columns. A coupon has been published for the last two or three weeks in the Miner, each coupon counting one vote. The question came up this morning as to whether each coupon has to be signed by a different party. This is almost an impossible requirement inasmuch as the Miner would need a force of Pinkerton detectives and handwriting experts to chase down each one. This is a little contest at best and we are doing the thing for someone else so do not intend to go to an unnecessary amount of trouble. The only requirement is that the name of the contestant being voted for appear on each coupon. All coupons have to be notified inasmuch as on the back of each is the imprint of that portion of the Miner page which appears on the other side.

There is one thing which we wish to impress on the candidates though and that is that the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes in either the Miner or the Oatman News will receive the trip to Phoenix. We do not know whether the Oatman News is running the contest or not or if they are how many votes have been turned in.

C. A. Warren and Wm. C. Fastnow have been asked to act as judges in the contest and will count the votes in company with the Miner management.

One more vote coupon is published today and the contest closes tonight at 8 o'clock.

Here is the standing of candidates at noon today:

Rosie Reynolds	1
Ruth Castrol	1
Pernilla Risum	39
Lilly Kause	26
Maurice Burroughs	1

Viola Hoffman and Helene Sealey have withdrawn.

Here is the last coupon to be published:
